

S.No	Question	Answer Options
1	When does India celebrate its Republic Day?	26th January <input type="checkbox"/>
		2nd October <input type="checkbox"/>
		15th August <input type="checkbox"/>
		14th November <input type="checkbox"/>
2	The festival of Teej is celebrated in North India to announce the coming of _____ season.	Spring <input type="checkbox"/>
		Winter <input type="checkbox"/>
		Summer <input type="checkbox"/>
		Monsoon <input type="checkbox"/>

3	_____ is celebrated in Kerala to mark the beginning of the harvest season.	Baisakhi	<input type="checkbox"/>
		Onam	<input type="checkbox"/>
		Bihu	<input type="checkbox"/>
		Lohri	<input type="checkbox"/>
4	Fill in the blanks : Id-ul-zuha is also known as _____ .	Answer _____
5	State true or false : Goddess Lakshmi is the goddess of Education.	True	<input type="checkbox"/>
		False	<input type="checkbox"/>

Correct Answer is

1. Correct Ans option is 26th January
2. Correct Ans option is Monsoon
3. Correct Ans option is Onam
4. Correct Answer is Bakrid
5. Correct Ans option is False