

S.No	Question	Answer Options
1	The three leading ruling families of the South which rose to prominence around the third century BC were called the _____ .	Muvendars <input type="checkbox"/>
		Munu <input type="checkbox"/>
		Satavahanas <input type="checkbox"/>
		Pallavas <input type="checkbox"/>
2	Who was the court poet of Pulkeshin?	Kumara Deva <input type="checkbox"/>
		Banabhatta <input type="checkbox"/>
		Ravi Verma <input type="checkbox"/>
		Ravikirti <input type="checkbox"/>

3	Dakshinapatha literally means "route leading to the _____."	North	<input type="checkbox"/>
		West	<input type="checkbox"/>
		South	<input type="checkbox"/>
		East	<input type="checkbox"/>
4	State true or false : The Sangam Age consisted of three Tamil kingdoms Cheras, Cholas and _____.	Answer _____
5	State true or false : The bronze statue of Nataraja is the finest example of Pallava art.	True	<input type="checkbox"/>
		False	<input type="checkbox"/>

Correct Answer is

1. Correct Ans option is Muvendars
2. Correct Ans option is Ravikirti
3. Correct Ans option is South
4. Correct Answer is Pandyas
5. Correct Ans option is False