

S.No	Question	Answer Options
1	The process by which leaves loose excess water in the form of water vapour is called _____.	Respiration <input type="checkbox"/>
		Transpiration <input type="checkbox"/>
		Perspiration <input type="checkbox"/>
		Precipitation <input type="checkbox"/>
2	A swollen leaf base is called a _____.	Petiole <input type="checkbox"/>
		Pulvinus <input type="checkbox"/>
		Stipule <input type="checkbox"/>
		Lamona <input type="checkbox"/>

3	Nerium and Alstonia are examples of _____ phyllotaxy.	Alternate	<input type="checkbox"/>
		Opposite	<input type="checkbox"/>
		Whorled	<input type="checkbox"/>
		None Of The Above	<input type="checkbox"/>
4	The part of a plant which rises vertically up from the ground is called its _____ .	Answer _____
5	Sepals protect the flower and also manufacture food.	True	<input type="checkbox"/>
		False	<input type="checkbox"/>

Correct Answer is

1. Correct Ans option is Transpiration
2. Correct Ans option is Pulvinus
3. Correct Ans option is Whorled
4. Correct Answer is shoot
5. Correct Ans option is True